THE 1961 EAGLE

SOUTH UNION TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL

UNIONTOWN, PENNA.

This is the book of life at South Union High School. The following pages portray the events and activities that have shaped our life during the past year. Friendships that will endure long after we have graduated and knowledge which will enrich our lives have been gained through the years at South Union High. We acknowledge the time and energy spent unselfishly by those men and women who have guided and counseled us throughout the years. We hope that you will enjoy and share with us our moment of happiness and success . . . the gay, the serious, and the unforgettable. We proudly present the South Union High School Yearbook.

South Union Township High School

Uniontown, Pennsylvania

In South Union Township live many spirited citizens whose accomplishments show ambition and integrity. These citizens make up the faculty, students, and friends of South Union High School, which has been evidenced so well in the lives of all who have been associated with the school in the past.

A well balanced life necessitates a well balanced education. South Union believes that studying is the most important, but not the only factor in achieving this well rounded education. To maintain this balance we have our Athletics and our Club Activities.

Our thanks go to everyone who has helped us during our years at South Union.

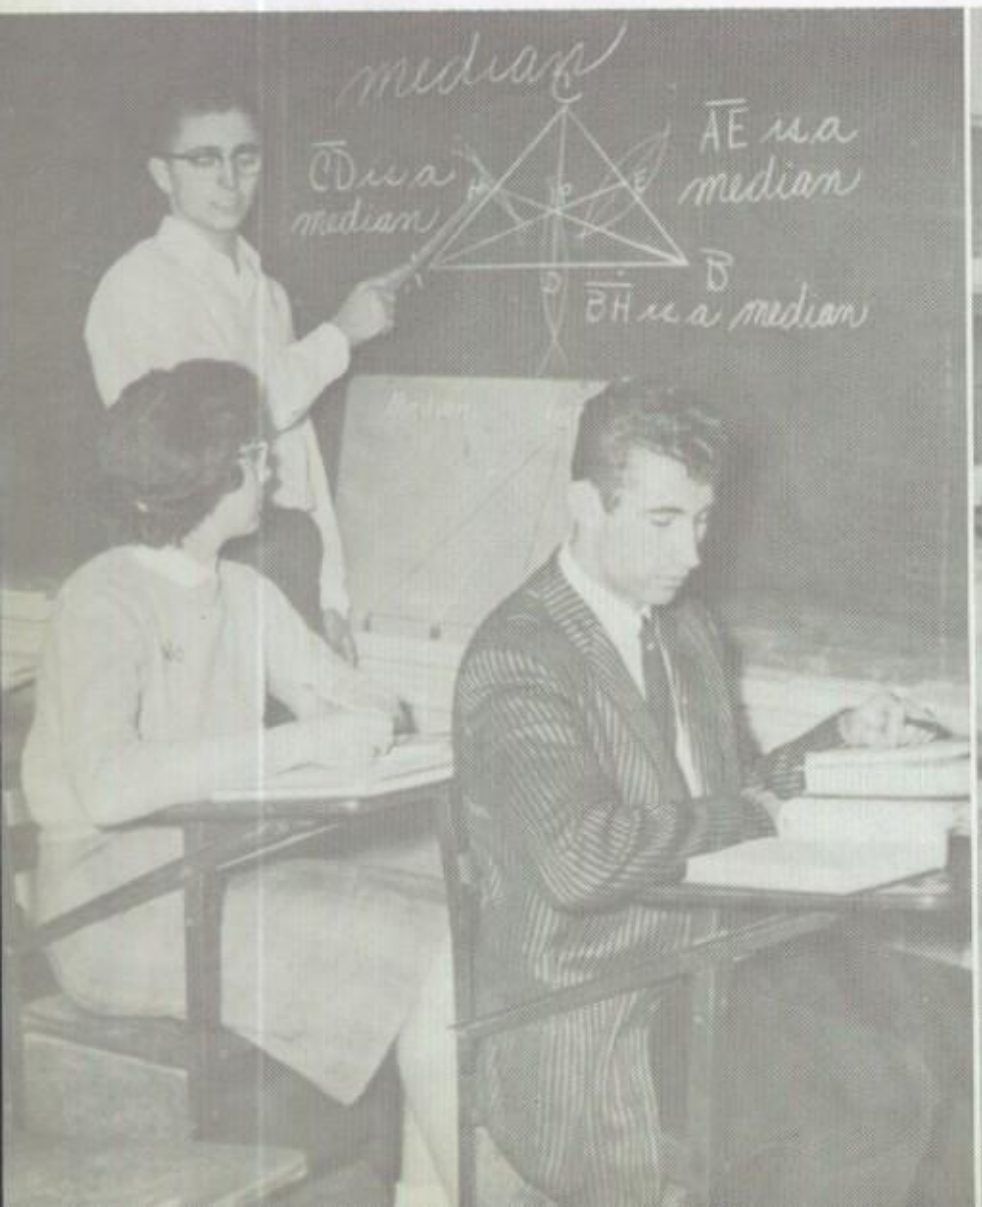
As we reminisce about our past few years at South Union, we cannot help but realize how our relationships with other people and our activities have made us more mature. Our years of high school are a linking chain which connects our former immaturity with the attitudes we now have, signifying our changed, more adult ways. Come with us, fellow classmen, as we investigate some important links of our "chain of maturity" . . . the people with whom we have associated, the clubs which placed in us a spirit to work together, the sports which have offered us competition, and the various social events we have enjoyed as a class . . . to see just how they have helped us to form these more adult attitudes we now possess.

May your remaining years in high school be as pleasant and as profitable as ours have been. May you have as many enjoyable memories to share with your classmates as we the Class of 1961 have.

Contents



CLASSES—The classroom is the foundation of education. Capable teachers and eager students combined to fulfill the standard of American education.

ACTIVITIES—An ample number of extra-curricular activities served to broaden the scope of interest of individual students. Thereby a stronger sense of "togetherness" embraced the student body.

ATHLETICS—Good sportsmanship, loyalty and spirit instilled in adults is often founded through athletic participation and spectating in school. These attribute the backbone of character and morality among American youth.

Our first link in our "chain of maturity" is "association with other people." We know that in order to be mature, one must be able to get along with those around him. In our years at South Union we have become friends of classmates, teachers, and administrators. They have all helped us to mature by sharing enjoyable experiences with us, advising us when we needed it, teaching us respect for the opinions of others. Through the guidance of our administration and faculty, we have learned that when one is mature, he uses wisely the talents and intelligence that have been given to him. Our classmates have made us realize that their attitudes must be acknowledged and that we are not always right in the attitudes we have or the decisions we wish to make.

ADMINISTRATION

At the head of every school district there must be a group of capable men to choose the system by which the schools are to be operated. This group is the School Board. It consists of seven men who have been selected by the voters of the township. On their shoulders rest many responsibilities. Electing the teachers, supplying classroom equipment, and handling the finances of the schools are only a few of the duties they must fulfill. Since the way in which we are conducted during our twelve years of schooling has a great effect on the kind of individuals we will become, each of their decisions must have our well-being in mind.

To receive and carry out their decisions and closely supervise the schools, a very dependable person must be appointed. Fulfilling the duties of supervising principal is Mr. Russel W. Hasson. In addition to seeing that the students of South

Union Township have the best teaching facilities available, he must also keep the educational policies, which have been set up by the board, carried on smoothly and accurately. Through Mr. Hasson and the School Board, today's students are given the best possible training for their future ambitions. In this way, the promising students of today will be the outstanding citizens of tomorrow.

"Behind every successful man, there is a woman," so the old saying goes. This is true of our administration. In the case of the school board and supervising principal, there is much book work to be done. Efficiency and speed are highly important. Miss Margaret Petish and Miss Constance Krizner successfully hold the positions of secretary and certainly are a very essential part of our administration.

Capable Leaders Assure Educational Progress

Every organization must have one person to guide it through all phases . . . good and bad alike. Serving as High School Principal, Mr. C. W. Frankhouser's leadership and guidance has been well appreciated by every student at South Union. His patience and understanding have inspired many to reach their highest achievements. Condemning slowly and defending quickly, this versatile man has an endless task. But, being able to cope with any situation, Mr. Frankhouser has long ago proved himself worthy of his position.

Assisting Mr. Frankhouser as his "right-hand personnel," Mrs. Mary Catney is well known by all. Although she carries the title of High School Secretary, Mrs. Catney's duties reach far beyond those normally expected. Her cheerful smile and reliable suggestions are offered to anyone in need of them. Her warm personality and willingness to help others make her a good friend of every student and faculty member at South Union High School.

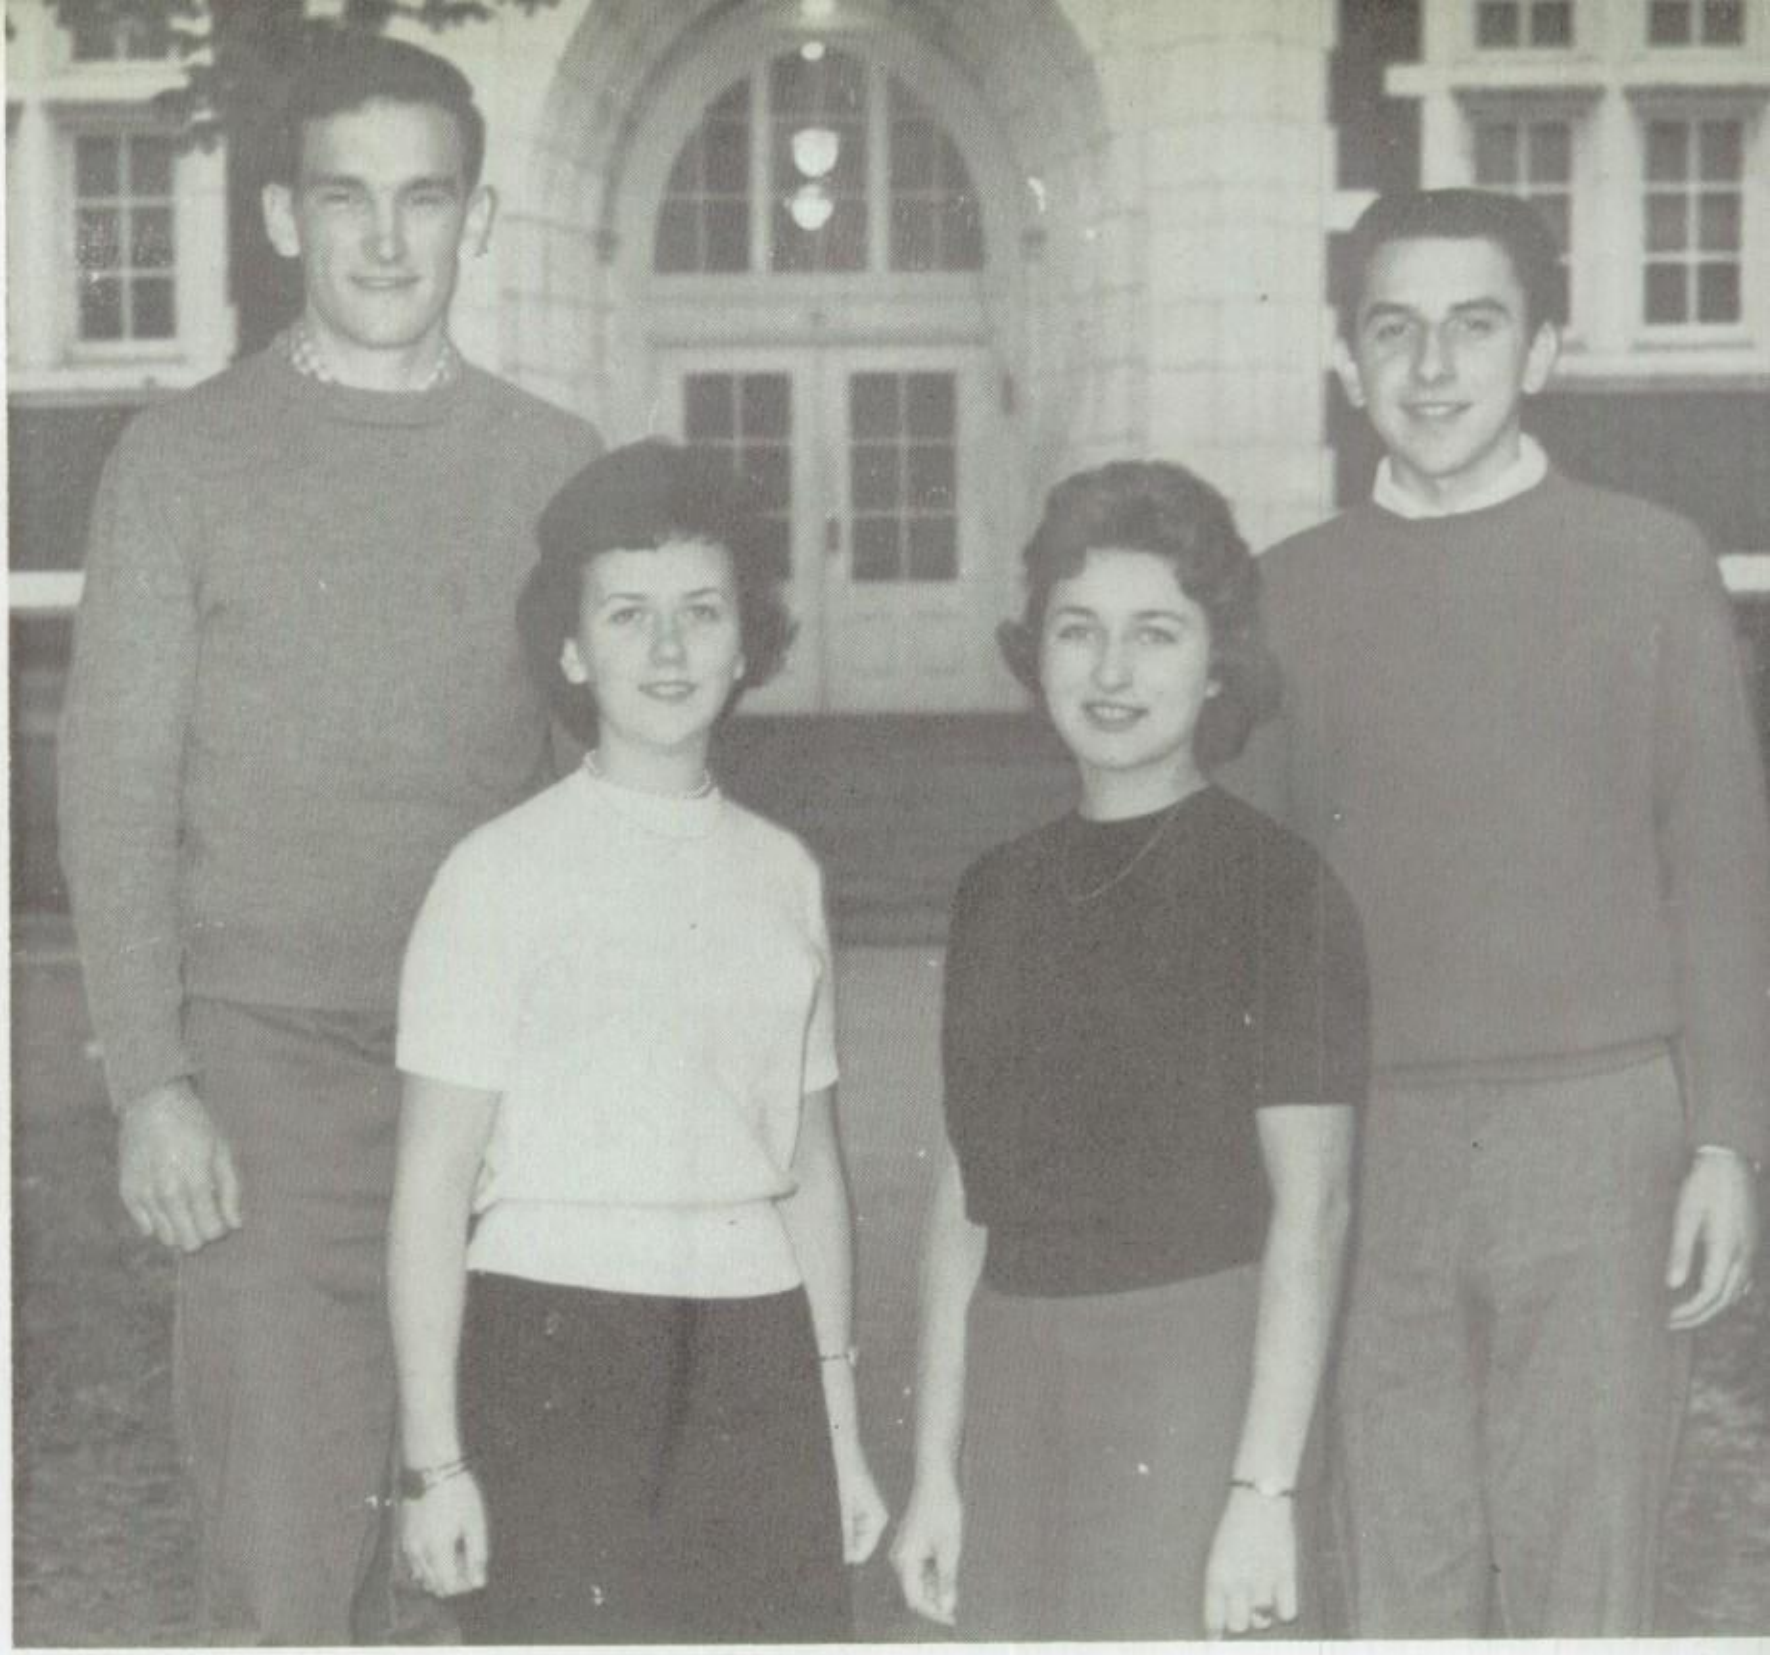
For 29 years the name Mr. Costolo and history have been synonymous at South Union High School. For 29 years students have had the opportunity of having one of the finest teachers ever to grace the faculty roster. To many he has been a symbol of respect and dignity. With his infinite pool of knowledge, Mr. Costolo has awakened the minds of many students to the problems of the past, present, and future worlds. To have been in his class was rewarding beyond all measure. While teaching the subject competently, he also helped his classes see far beyond the surface of the topic at hand. With apologies to the authors of our textbooks, we, the students, feel that the most interesting and beneficial points presented to us came from the teacher himself.

Reminiscing a little, probably every student can recall the first day in American History class, room one. We seated ourselves in no certain arrangement and awaited the sound of the bell to begin class. Precisely at that moment, in walked a distinguished looking man whose very presence demanded respect. After asking a variety of questions (probably to test our knowledge), he arranged us in alphabetical order. To be seated near his desk was a privilege or a handicap, depending upon whether you could take some teasing. By using the students themselves as examples, Mr. Costolo made the explanation of the Anti-Trust Act or Sherman's March on Atlanta interesting and simple to understand. The sound of roaring laughter coming from his room usually indicated that Mr. Costolo had told one of his colorful stories to the class. Many can recall having contributed forty cents to the band as a penalty for chewing gum in history class. Without exception, no student can boast of getting away with anything in his class. His sharp mind was always one step ahead of dishonesty and buck-passing, and report cards revealed only what each student actually deserved.

Truly he was a fine teacher, and out of class he was an equally fine person, his many friends from the faculty and student body will all readily agree. Indeed, we feel privileged to have been the last class taught by Mr. Costolo. It is our duty and our honor to bid farewell to him from every class at South Union prior to, and including our own. We find this extremely difficult, for he has given us so much that no amount of "thank you's" would suffice.

Still . . . we now say thank you and farewell to Mr. Costolo, our teacher and our friend.



Francis Novak, President; Janet Johnson, Vice-President; Carol Lee Good, Secretary; Steve Karinshak, Treasurer.

SENIOR CLASS

At last we write the final chapter of our long history at South Union High School. As a group, we trailed along our high school years together, sharing our joys and our sorrows, our achievements and our defeats. It is with a bit of apprehension that we must now branch into individuals. We are no longer a part of one-hundred and forty students, but are now regarded as adults in the eyes of the world.

Our class embraces a variety of students. Some have become famous on the gridiron or on the basketball court; some have achieved high scholastic honors; some have been leaders in social activities.

A flashback to our freshman year recalls new and exciting experiences. We had become high school students and tried doggedly to fit in with the upperclassmen. The first real sense of belonging came when we eagerly made preparations, with the sophomores, for the spring dance.

In our sophomore year, our class represented us as majorettes and as football players; we also participated in basketball, track, and baseball. We were really "getting up there." As juniors, we felt that we were really "in." We had our own dance in the fall and many of us attended the prom. Finally, to terminate our high school years, we experienced the prom, convocation, and graduation.

We have reached the other side of the bridge to the adult world. Whether it is college, marriage, or a job that awaits us, we shall hear of each other from time to time. And when we do, we shall perk up and say, "Yes, we graduated together from South Union High School in 1961."

SELF-CONFIDENCE WE STRIVE TO ACQUIRE

Edith Glisan
Class Sponsor

As the junior class looks back on the events of the past year, it views with pride its many accomplishments. The first memorable event of the year was the election of four very capable class officers. Under the guidance of the class sponsor, Miss Edith Glisan, they led the class through the year's events.

With the distribution of class rings came the feeling that the juniors had finally become upperclassmen in the eyes of the entire school. Now they were pledged to represent their school with their best in every field of endeavor.

The Junior Dance, "Autumn Ecstacy," held in November, was a complete success. The gym was beautifully decorated in the colors of autumn foliage. From those in attendance, a king and queen were selected. Floyd Geho and Judy Parke were crowned along with their attendants, Linda Brownfield and Susan Hunt.

The junior class represented their school well in both scholastic and athletic fields, and is eagerly awaiting their turn to become honorable seniors. They are looking forward to becoming the leaders of the high school and to becoming the future leaders of their country.

Gary Hilling, Kathy Shott, Judy Parke and Floyd Geho prepare a physics experiment for the science fair portion of the annual high school open house.

Literally translated, the word "sophomore" means "wise fool." Perhaps we still remain fools in the eyes of some, but this year we have added more wisdom to our mounting store of knowledge.

Our first chance to show our sound judgment came with our election of class officers . Much credit to our class success must be given to Mr. Loncaric for the fine counseling he has given our officers this year.

Joseph Loncaric

The main social event of the year was a Christmas Party; and the money-making project was a movie entitled "Say One for Me." Both were very successful.

We could never think of our happy years at South Union without remembering the sports events. Many of the boys participated in athletics such as track, baseball, football, and basketball. Our class seems to boast quite a few future sports stars.

There are always a few never-to-beforgotten memories tucked away in a corner of our minds that come to light when we think of our sophomore year at South Union. After all, who could ever forget the North Union-South Union games? Or cheerleader tryouts? Remember that fateful day when the smell of formaldehyde filled the halls and girls walked around with white faces? Someone dead? No, only the annual dissecting of frogs by the sophomores.

We have reached the half-way mark of our days at S.U. It's been up to us to decide whether we were going to buckle down and study of get behind the "educational 8-ball." It goes without saying that we were grateful to our fine teachers and principal, Mr. Frankhouser. Our sophomore year will always hold an important place among our fond memories of South Union.

"You're in the wrong class" was very frequently heard by the freshmen as they began to write their story in the great history of South Union. Going to the wrong class, going the wrong way in the halls, and being called "dumb freshmen" were constantly heard the first few weeks of school. Nevertheless, we enjoyed the beginning of our eventful first year of high school. But we settled down to the routines of the school, and finally came to be respected, or at least remembered, by those "honorable seniors."

The first freshman event was a Christmas Party held on December 23. The party was held for the freshman and sophomore classes of South Union. The students had an enjoyable time and the party was a big success.

As our money-raising project, the freshman class sponsored a movie entitled "Say One for Me." Mr. Fudala, our class sponsor, was instrumental in our having had a very successful year.

As school came to a close, everyone was happy to become a sophomore, but would like to relive our first year in high school as "lowly freshmen." We, the freshman class of 1960-61, sincerely thank everyone involved in producing our outstanding record as freshmen.

The Freshmen

STEP INTO

THE LIGHT FOR THE FIRST TIME

THE EIGHTH GRADE

Adapted Their Ways To The Different Surroundings

Mrs. Littell, Miss Kollar, Miss Wallace, Mrs. Garner.

To the halls of Areford we bid good-bye and eagerly anticipate our position as the Freshman Class of S.U.H.S. Although we shall be at the bottom of the "social scale" again, we face the next year with great expectations. Having had many cherished memories of the past, we will not easily forget the years at Areford. This year has been marked by activities, many and varied. The gymnasium was the scene for the frequently held Twilight Dances. Being restricted to only members of the 7th and 8th grades, these events offered to us a chance to mingle more closely with our classmates.

Thanks to the patience and hard work of our teachers, we have had the opportunity of broadening our interests through a variety of clubs.

Much to the enjoyment of the class, we were granted the privilege of attending movies, concerts, and various assemblies held in the auditorium. Our students who are musically inclined participated in the newly-formed Jr. High Band. As we viewed our marching music-makers in the stadium or sidewalk, our hearts were filled with pride and school spirit.

We have been fortunate here in 8th grade, for much has been bestowed upon us. As good citizens we will try to make Areford and S.U. proud of us, so that they may know our appreciation.

So sadly, yet so eagerly, we say "Good-bye elementary days — high school days, here we come!"

JUNIOR HIGH ACTIVITIES

ART CLUB . . . The members of the Art Club completed several interesting projects this past year. Under the supervision of Miss Veronica Kollar, the club sponsor, the members of the club made silhouettes of each other, potato block prints, charcoal sketches, mosaic jars and Christmas cards in water colors.

CHORUS . . . The chorus of South Union Junior High presented a program of choral music based on contemporary popular songs of America directed by Mr. John T. Gabbert and assisted by Mrs. Sessler.

HEALTH CLUB . . . The Busy Hands Health Club sponsored by Miss Anna Wallace learned to make improvised sick room equipment such as bed tables, back rests from cardboard cartons, bathrobes from blankets, shoulder shawls from towels and tin can bed blocks to raise the height. This club consisted of boys from the seventh and eighth grades.

HOBBY CLUB . . . This club consists of seventh grade students from Areford School. It was formed to devote time to the special interests of the students. They built models of the ship "Old Ironsides," a 1960 show car, a modern jet plane and a manned space ship. Miss Frances Rea was the club sponsor.

PRESS CLUB . . . The Press Club met every morning during activities period. The members wrote articles for the school paper and studied composition and make-up of papers. The club's sponsor was Mrs. Roy Griffin.

DRAMATIC CLUB . . . The Dramatic Club was made up of seventh and eighth grade students. The objective of the club was to study the processes of play production, become familiar with stage terms, learn to direct and produce a play. "The Ghost That Giggled" was presented and also two Christmas plays. This club was sponsored by Mrs. Samuel Garner.

TRAVEL CLUB . . . Mrs. McMahon furnished her club with delightful movies of far-away places. The students participated in various activities that stimulated the desire to travel.

PENNSYLVANIA HISTORY CLUB . . . Knowing Pennsylvania and appreciating her interesting history was the goal set by Miss Romesburg and her club. Also a complete history of South Union Township was accumulated and mimeographed copies were given to each member and each teacher in the Junior High.

LITERATURE CLUB . . . Mrs. Littell was instrumental in creating in every Literature Club member an ardent wish to read every book available. The students shared their reading experiences with each other.

Eighth Grade

WE GAINED EXPERIENCE TO BE WORTHY OF ACCLAIM

THE SEVENTH GRADE

Started Out On The Path That Would Bring New And Varied Experiences . . .

Mrs. Sessler, Mrs. McMahon, Miss Romesburg, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Rea

Junior High of Today—
Senior High of Tomorrow.

As green as leaves, the new seventh graders started this completely different year. The teachers had a hard job of trying to make us set aside our grade school ways and settle down to the task of going through the years of Junior High.

It seems the first few days were the most confusing. Teachers saw bewildered students standing in the halls, not yet knowing their assigned schedules.

Although it was perplexing at first, we can proudly say that the seventh graders are much improved since the year before. We have really buckled down and have tried to learn as much as possible so that we can be progressive, successful men and women in our future years.

Former junior high students did not have the advantages of Home Economics, Physical Education, and Shop classes that we now have. Another advantage given to the new Junior High is the permission to participate in the club of their choice.

The band and chorus of the Junior High have had several programs enjoyed by all who attended. We have had many delightful dances and enjoyed many movies.

Even though the school year is ended, we will all miss the teachers, friends, and the wonderful year in the seventh grade at Areford Junior High School.

At South Union, students are given the opportunity to participate in many activities, which not only afford us countless hours of pleasure, but help us to become more mature individuals as well. Group activities bring us in contact with other peple. Through working with other students, it is possible for us to learn to associate successfully with others. We are taught to put the welfare of the group before our individual welfare and to serve the group's interests unselfishly. Because cooperation is necessary in an organization, we learn to co-ordinate our efforts to achieve a common goal.

Our relationship with others also serves to strengthen our character, along with broadening our scope of interest and knowledge. We learn to accept duties and carry them out faithfully, and to assume responsibility. They also give us the opportunity to contribute our own ideas to the group and respect the opinions of others.

PRESERVED MANY HAPPY MEMORIES OF SCHOOL LIFE

Domenick A. Cupelli
Advisor

What is it that everybody waits for at the close of the school year? Why, it is the "Eagle," of course! Do you remember that time of the year when everybody was leaving class to have his picture taken? As you can see, "perfection" is the keyword for these pictures. Leafing through the pages, you will recall having participated in many of them.

To give you this resume of the school year, a lot of work was done by a large group of people. Have you read each article? Please do. The writers have done an exceptionally fine job this year.

Of course, if it were not for the financial assistance of the advertising solicitors and circulation staffs, the Eagle would not be the fine piece of work that it is.

But in spite of all these efforts, all would be in vain if it were not for Mr. Domenick A. Cupelli, advisor of the Eagle.

All things considered, everyone had a very enjoyable time doing his job to bring to you the 1961 "Eagle."

Frank Pukl, Janet Johnson and Mr. Fike details of Blue Devil paper.

The pride of South Union is its newspaper, "The Blue Devil." It covers everything that could possibly be put into ten pages. As a result of the hard work, cooperation, and ability of the staff, the newspaper was written, edited, printed, and circulated in a smooth, businesslike manner.

However, it was not "all work and no play," for they had a successful Christmas party.

"Did you write your article? Who will take this autobiography? Remember the deadline!" These familiar sayings are heard by the students who comprise the staff of the Blue Devil News.

Each reporter hustles about getting interviews, then turns them over to the editor, who checks and rechecks. The results can readily be seen when "The Blue Devil," packed with news stories, editorials, and sports reviews makes its heralded appearance.

One of the most promising clubs of South Union Township High School is the F.N.A., which was organized due to the growing interest shown by students in nursing careers. Miss Alma Kern, school nurse, is the advisor of the interested members.

The objectives of the club are to help the student gain a full understanding of what a nursing career will mean and the vital field of health in which nurses work.

The meetings of the F.N.A. are held twice a month and the business meetings are held once a month. The officers for the year of 1960-61 were: Janet Johnson, President; Christine Sasko, Vice-President; Joycelyn Thomas, Secretary; Beth Gleason, Treasurer; Linda Goodwin, Historian. The club has participated in field trips and several social activities. This year the F.N.A. had been fortunate in taking part in a pre-nursing course at the Uniontown Hospital. This course gave the students an insight into nursing and a better understanding of the techniques of a hospital. We feel the club had an interesting year.

"Co-ordination and efficiency" is the watchword and goal of the fourteen young men who comprise the South Union Patrol Squad. In addition to their main duty of controlling traffic in the halls during school hours, the patrolmen maintain order in the cafeteria at noon. These boys are always ready, willing, and able to handle any situation; they are the backbone of our school.

The 1961 Patrol Squad is under the capable leadership of its captain, Bill Marks, whose voice is heard between classes over the public address system. He also acts as advisor for the Areford Junior High School Patrol.

Various tasks necessary to the efficient operation of the high school have been delegated to them by our principal and patrol advisor, Mr. Frankhouser. Each year the vacancies of the graduating seniors are filled by freshmen, selected on the basis of character, reliability, trustworthiness, scholastic ability, and teacher recommendation.

The opportunity to serve as a member of the squad is a highly coveted honor; and each boy receives a school letter as recognition of his service, leadership, and good citizenship. Congratulations to these gentlemen who help keep South Union a school of which we can justly be proud!

FOR A BETTER S.U.H.S. — OUR PRIVATE POLICE FORCE

Each year a small group of sophomore, junior, and senior girls take upon themselves the task of keeping the girls' restroom neat and clean. These young women are not in the limelight as are our other clubs and institutions, but remain in the obscure background; yet their job is of equal importance. They understand the necessity of sanitary restroom facilities, and they encourage others to cooperate with them in maintaining these conditions. The fourteen girls are chosen by Mrs. Johns at the opening term, and each has an assigned period of duty.

These are South Union's Patrol Girls, here to serve the girls of the student body.

RECORD THE RESULTS OF OUR EFFORTS EACH SIX WEEKS

Michael P. Koury
Faculty Advisor

At the close of every six week period, it is time for the grade recorders to get busy. This group of girls is chosen on dependability, trustworthiness, honor, and high scholastic ability.

The system of transferring grades from the teachers' records to the permanent record books is very efficiently handled.

Even though some difficulties do arise, with the aid of Mr. Koury the problems are solved.

Another job of these seventeen girls is to average senior grades. You may often see them giving up their study periods in order to do this.

Although it is quite a task to record each high school student's grades in one day, the grade recorders always manage to have the job well done.

The library staff consists of sixteen boys and girls under the expert supervision of Mrs. Rogers. They are ready and willing to help students with their assignments in looking up material on one subject or another.

Checking out books, taking inventory, and reminding students of their overdue books are only a few of the many duties of the librarians. The proceeds of these affairs have gone into the library fund to buy new books and equipment.

The entire library staff really deserves a vote of confidence from the Class of '61.

FAST STEPPING MUSICIANS

Band Director

The school year 1960-61 has been filled with many rewarding and pleasing experiences for the South Union High School Board The events of the year, including football games, pep meetings, and parades were greatly enhanced by the presence of the band.

Under the leadership of Mr. Richard E. McCoy, the hard work and cooperation of the band members have brought many favorable comments from the public on its fine performances. The culmination of the efforts of the group was the spring concert when it played a collection of compositions ranging from Broadway hit tunes to classical overtures.

The Band Mothers have been very active this year, purchasing for the graduating seniors the blue and white jackets.

The South Union Band was represented at P.M.E.A. Western District Band this year by three fine musicians—Robert Buell, William Sumey, and Rosemary Felix. Two of these, Robert Buell and William Sumey, were also the delegates to Western District Orchestra.

The final notes of the recessional march at the graduation of the class of '61 will bring to a close a fine year, a year of many memories for the Blue Devil Band of South Union High School.

CHORAL GROUPS THRILL RAPT AUDIENCES

This year, the South Union High School Senior Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. John T. Gabbert, has completed what has been called its best season in many years.

The Cantata was presented on Wednesday, December 21, 1960, at 8:15 p.m., in the high school auditorium. The progarm, entitled "The Child of Joy," was a collection of traditional carols and anthems with a narrative written by Joseph Sabik. During the program, Michael Potrocky and Donna Ordway sang a duet. Soloists for the evening were Donna Ordway, who sang "O Holy Night," and Joseph Sabik, who sang the tenor solo in "Go Tell It on the Mountain." The narration was read by William Marks.

The Spring Concert was presented on April 25, 1961. Once again our fine chorus came through with an excellent program, entitled "American Panorama." It was composed of America's favorite choral compositions bound together by a narrative written by Joseph Sabik. The program included such American favorites as "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," a Bach Chorale, and other great choral works as well as "Blue Skies" by Irving Berlin and other favorite melodies by American composers, all done superbly by our masterful chorus, under the direction of Mr. Gabbert. Michael Potrocky and Donna Ordway then displayed their vocal talents by singing "No Man Is an Island." Donna Ordway and Joseph Sabik sang solos.

Our chorus also had an invitation to sing for the Rotary Club on May 2, 1961. The Rotarians listened with the appreciation and the attention that our masterful chorus well deserved.

Our fine accompanists this year were Mr. Richard Maier and Miss Sonya Caton.

On Monday, March 13, the night of the open house, the chorus presented a "practice session" for the benefit of parents and patrons.

Following the popular axiom, "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach," the Home Economics Department is helping many a girl to become a better homemaker. Many people learn to cook and sew by the trial and error method, but not these young ladies.

The Home Economics Department is set up in such a manner that it will help many a girl to become a better homemaker. In the foods section approximately twenty-five girls assist in the operation of the cafeteria, serving approximately three hundred and fifty students each day. By doing this they receive a practical education in the planning and preparation of menus and balanced diets. They also receive opportunity to acquire skill in the use of modern equipment.

Along with the culinary arts they are skillfully trained in sewing, good grooming, dressing, and modeling. Designed to teach the students to use their hands in constructive ways, the Home Economics courses give them a chance to learn the things that will help them in the future as well as in the home. Realizing this, the Home Economics Department offers a course to help make tomorrow's housewives capable, efficient, and charming.

NOON HOUR CLUB

Carol L. Good, President; Richard Mollis, Treasurer; Michael Potrocky, Vice-President; Joyce Dvorchak, Secretary; Mr. Ryan, Advisor.

An outstanding and popular club at South Union High School is the Noon Hour Club. Its purpose is to supply various activities for lunch time enjoyment.

Early this semester, the members elected the officers under the capable supervision of Mr. Ryan, advisor of the club. In addition to music and dancing in the gym every noon, sports events such as basketball and volleyball games, were held very often. Many members of the faculty contributed their time for our enjoyment by participating in the games. Also, in January, the annual record hop, offering free admission and refreshments for all members, was successfully received.

With its profits for the 1960-61 school year, the Noon Hour Club has purchased a water fountain for the upper hall of the main building. As always, the organization has donated the trophies for South Union's annual Award Day.

Certainly, a club with so many highlights and one so eager to please all cannot help but be such a complete success. Our congratulations go to the Noon Hour Club for a job well done.

PROMOTE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The Theta Tri-Hi-Y, one of the most active clubs at South Union, began its busy year with initiation of forty new members followed by an introduction dinner party.

The club's purpose of "creating, maintaining, and extending Christian character throughout the home, school and community" was fulfilled by contributing to the Y.M.C.A. World Service Fund and the Fayette County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, soliciting funds for the Easter Seal and Heart Funds and donating sheets to the Cancer Society Muslin Drive.

The members brought holiday cheer to the halls of South Union by purchasing and decorating a beautiful Christmas tree. Other enjoyable activities and projects were a bake sale, record hop, movie, basketball and volleyball games.

This year the seventy-six members were presented with official Tri-Hi-Y pins. Social activities included a swimming party, a trip to Kennywood and a farewell party for the seniors. Some meetings featured guest speakers whose subject materials covered dramatics, job applications, journalism, self-improvement, fashion trips and religion.

Dolores Bill and Patty Kollar served as council members at the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Council meetings. Much of the success of the club was due to the advisor, Mrs. Josephine Cornish.

Election and induction of officers ended a productive and successful year.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Industrial Arts Course offered by South Union is, without a doubt, one of the finest in Fayette County. It consists chiefly of Architectural and Mechanical Drawing, Blueprint Reading, and Wood, Machine, General Electric, and Electronics-Radio Shops. These subjects are organized to give the student a well-rounded knowledge of the various techniques used in each field.

The Shop was introduced in 1934 and has continued to offer an educational and profitable course to the students at South Union.

This year the Industrial Arts Department has advanced under the capable management of Mr. Hunter and Mr. Heddleston.

Additions to the shop have been in the form of remodeling of the tool and electronics rooms which were performed by the instructors with the assistance of the students.

"SPRINGTIME IN PARIS"

South Union Home Economics Department presented "Springtime in Paris" the annual fashion show and tea in the auditorium. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Shelda Donati and Mrs. Rita Koury. The student directors were Patty Kollar and Martha Newcomer.

A French scene featuring an open cafe in Paris provided the setting for presentation of modern vogues created by students of the clothing classes.

Beth Gleason was the mistress of ceremonies. Class narrators were Carole Parke, Carolyn Powell, Linda Matelli, June Nicholson, and Linda Dennis. As an interesting sidelight, entertainment was provided by Donna Ordway, Carol Corodi, Richard Maier, Richard Puskarich, and Judy Stefl.

Athletic activities can do much to develop individual maturity. They teach us to cooperate with each other and to work together, as a team, toward a common goal. Although each man is important because of his individual abilities, he is even more important because he becomes a member of a single, functioning unit. This promotes a spirit of fellowship among the members of the team. It develops our respect for the abilities and shortcomings of others. Through league competition, we are taught good sportsmanship. Learning to take losses well is vital to our development as individuals. Competition in sports can teach us to take defeats gracefully, as mature people should, as well as teach us to be gracious victors.

FOOTBALL

Under the able guidance of Mr. John Pringle and his assistants, Ron Fudala and Martin Fagler, our football team posted a four win and five loss record. Do not make the mistake of a few, and think we had just a fair team. No, such was not the case of the Blue Devil squad of 1960-61. Sporting one of the finest teams in the county, we ran into a tough customer, that being fate. Running through our first four games without a defeat, the Blue Devils looked certain of a winning season, and some thought the Devils could go undefeated. The thing that hurt our mighty Blue Devils the last five games was not bad play on the part of the boys but that we were unable to get a break. It seemed as though we were never blessed with a break that would have meant, in many opinions, five wins instead of five defeats. These breaks were without a doubt the turning points of the games. Yet, we are proud of you, Blue Devils, and we feel if the season were played again and we got the breaks, we surely would have gone undefeated.

The first Blue Devil victory came at the expense of Carmichaels by the score of 33-6. The scoring was done by the following seniors: Fran Novak, Dave Marovich, Joe Veno, Harry Haught, and last but not least sophomore quarterback Lin Bierer.

The second game of the young season was played against Hurst. Hurst having been a dominant power in football ranks the past few seasons and not having been defeated since 1957, was a slight favorite. As the smoke cleared, our Blue Devils had proven their colors as they swamped the Purple Hurricane 33-21. Doing the scoring for the Blue Devils were Fran Novak, with two touchdowns; Ray Mollis, Harry Haught, and Tony DeCarlo with one each.

Fairchance-Georges was the next team to fall at the hands of the Blue and White. The final score was 47-25. Scoring for the Blue Devils were DeCarlo, Veno, Marovich, Haught, Novak, and Bierer.

In the Bellmar game the Devils were sparked by the passing of Fran Novak and the running of Harry Haught. South Union's first score of the night came on a pass from Novak to DeCarlo. The next touchdown was scored on a beautiful run by Haught. The final score was 14-6, South Union.

The Waynesburg game proved to be the turning point for the season. The Devils simply could not move the ball against the Raiders' stubborn defense. The furthest penetration our boys made was to the twelve yard line of Waynesburg. Score: 6-0.

The German game was lost by even a larger score. The final in this one was 18-7, German. S. U.'s only score came on a pass from Novak to Veno.

The Dunbar game came next. This was senior night. The game turned out to be the same as the weather — cold, wet, and dreary. The fighting Blue and White went down to defeat 25-14. The touchdowns were scored by Novak and Haught on passes.

South Union's next game was against Albert Gallatin. The Devils took a 6-0 half-time lead but failed to hold onto it in the sceond half. The

Make that tackle, Novak!

Keep on your toes, boys.

Colonials scored twice and we went down to defeat, 14-6. S. U.'s lone score came on a run by Haught.

The last game of the season we met face to face with the Mighty Rams of North Union. Our crosstown rivals were sporting a very fine record of seven wins and one tie. Words cannot express the desire of our Devils, for this was it; they wanted this victory. Mother fate turned her back on our boys again for statistics show that we matched North Union in every way of playing and in some ways surpassed them. It is hard for a fine team such as ours ot play their hearts out only to have all the breaks go to the other team. Fran Novak scored our lone touchdown on a 75-yard gallop that proved superior speed to any North Union defender. As we all know it was not enough for we lost 21-7. We all feel that the difference in this game was a six-letter name—Mrowca. The Ram terminal single-handed was the deciding factor of the game. Although the loss tugs deep to our hearts, we congratulate the undefeated Rams of 1960-61. But we still feel the greater congratulations go out to our boys. Good sportsmanship means the leaders of tomorrow and if such is the case we will have quite a few.

What's the disagreement now?

BASKETBALL . . . CAPTURED CROWDS WITH TEAMWORK

The South Union Blue Devils made a fine showing in their initial year in Section 10. The Blue and White started out slowly but came up fast in the final half of the season to finish with a record of 11 wins and only three losses. Although this was not enough to win the section championship, the Devils managed to finish in a tie for second place. The three teams that defeated the Devils were Redstone, Albert-Gallatin, and Brownsville.

In exhibition play, the S.U.H.S. cagers did not have it too easy. They were put up against very stiff competition and could win only two out of the five games played.

The Blue Devils were paced by the fine shooting and rebounding of Dave Marovich and Jack Silbaugh. Sophomore Jerry Meadows also did a great job on the boards. Fran Novak and Jimmy Wright did their share of scoring but were mainly playmakers.

We should also pay tribute to the five senior players who will not be here when the South Union basketball season rolls around next year. They are Dave Marovich, Fran Novak, Jick Silbaugh, Harold Wilson, and Jim Zdanek.

Even though S. U. will lose five valuable players they can look forward to some fine teams in the future because the freshman talent is just about the best around. Congratulations to our 1961 squad.

"BATTERS-UP" HEARD BY S.U. NINE AS SEASON OPENS

"In the spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of . . . baseball. Coach Okey Ryan has heeded this philosophy to turn out the best pitchers, catchers, fielders, and batters possible. This year's baseballers were no exception. Although the crowd screamed "Kill the umpire!" the poised Blue Devils kept their heads and pulled the close ones out of the fire. They bunted, homered, and slid their way into the lead, and stayed there.

Seniors Tony Decarlo, Rich Mollis, James Dittmore, Steve Karinshak, Larry Baran, and Wayne Spear were the key figures.

In the underclassmen there was great talent in Lin Bierer and Jerry Meadows.

TRACK

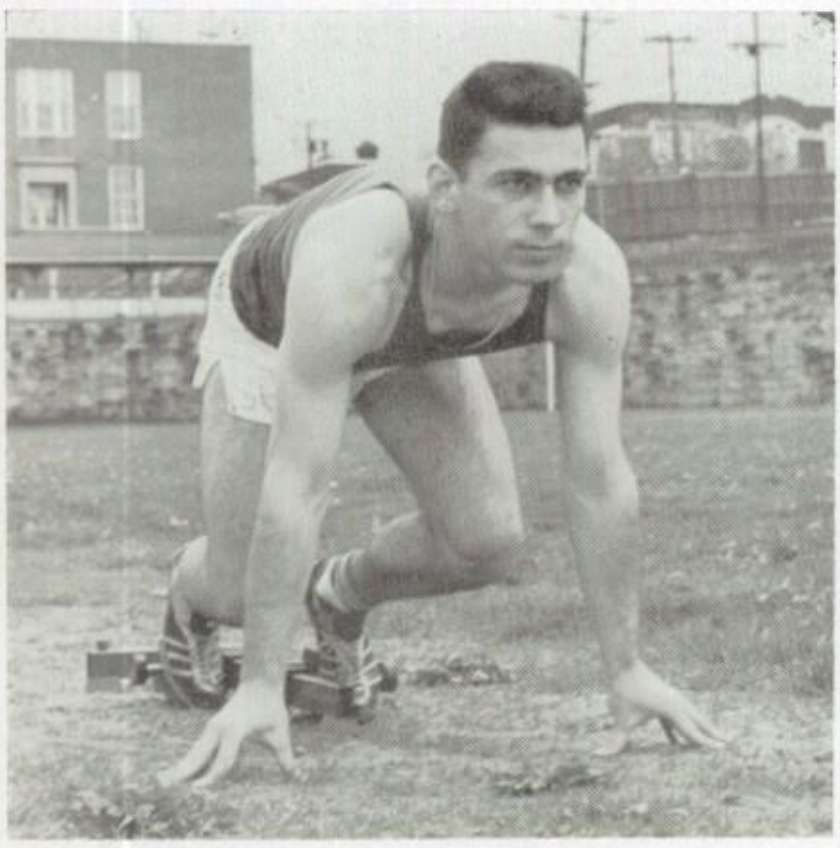
ROW 2—R. Augustine, R. Joswick, E. Cerul, A. Ramsey, M. Ellis, F. Novak, M. Potrocky, H. Haught, D. Stone, J. Stump, R. Guseman, F. Geho, Coach J. Stefancin.

ROW 3—G. Hilling, D. Dvorchak, C. Parke, D. Burke, W. Mavracic, R. Bierbower, J. Meadows, M. Lechnar, L. Herring, A. Marmol, R. Kazimer, P. Cooley.

BLUE DEVIL TRACKMEN COP W.P.I.A.L. TITLE

The Blue and White cindermen, under the leadership of Coach Joseph Stefancin, not only annexed the District 3-B Meet Championship to their long line of laurels but also the W.P.I.A.L. Championship. This year's squad in the words of Coach Stefancin was "the best group of young athletes I have ever coached." Tod Trent, sports writer for the Evening Standard, also agreed, and contributed many fine articles and write-ups for our boys. In an article written after our boys had won the W.P.I.A.L. Championship, Mr. Trent wrote: "Anyway you view it, this was a great achievement for South Union. You've got to take your hat off to Stefancin and his squad. Their success represented a lot of hard work for a team that had to overcome big odds. As has been pointed out before, South Union doesn't have a track. The only time they run on cinders is when they compete in a meet."



Andy Marmol preparing for his start in the 220.

Fran Novak and Ron Stone also hold the W.P.I.A.L. record in their specialty.

Probably the most widely known part of our Blue Devil squad was the mile relay. Every time this group of fine young athletes took to the track a record of some sort was broken. The team composed of Harry Haught, Mike Potrocky, Don Stone, and Fran Novak also hold the W.P.I.A.L. record in the event.

Six boys qualified for the state meet at Penn State through the W.P.I.A.L. They were Harry Haught, Fran Novak, Mike Potrocky and Don Stone, all seniors. The lone junior to qualify was Andy Marmol.

Such an accomplishment cannot be claimed by any Uniontown district school in the last two decades. Truly an honor for South Union.

Although the squad will badly miss the services of seniors Harry Haught, Mike Potrocky, Don Stone, Fran Novak, Joe Veno and Dave Marovich, they will have the services of Andy Marmol.

All in all we congratulate you, Blue Devils, W.P.I.A.L. Champions, for a job well done.

Dave with one of his better throws of the day.

Four Years of Work, Joy and Tears Come to A Glorious End

The day so long awaited is here . . . and we are overwhelmed with mixed emotions. We are thrilled at the thought of the challenge the future holds, and we are eager to experience it, but we are a bit reluctant to depart from the familiar things. Faces and places, dear friends, and all that we revered, we shall leave. For, it is written that "even this shall pass away," and we resolutely face the inevitable future that our sojourn here has prepared us to meet.
